

- Introduce yourself
- Discuss goal – inform voters about the City’s new voting method called Ranked Choice Voting
- There is no such thing as a stupid question, please feel free to interrupt me during the presentation.

The Election

- November 3, 2009 is Election Day
 - There is no primary in 2009
- Municipal elections only
 - Mayor, City Council, Park Board, Board of Estimate and Taxation
- Only in the City of Minneapolis

- The election is November 3rd, 2009. This year there is no primary.
- There will be a primary in 2010 for the state races
- This change only applies to City of Minneapolis municipal elections – Mayor, City Council, Park Board, Board of Estimate and Taxation.

[Does not apply to school board, county commissioners, judges, etc.]